

What Jesus Did Through You This Week!

Dear partners, thank you for another outstanding week of ministry, made possible by your generous and faithful giving. Inspired and directed by the Holy Spirit, we had a full and fruitful week.

The Holy Spirit has given us the following scripture for you our partners:

"For you are becoming progressively acquainted with and recognizing more strongly and clearly the grace of our Lord Jesus (His kindness, His gracious generosity, His undeserved favor and spiritual blessing, that though He was so very rich, yet for your sakes He became so very poor, in order that by His poverty, you might become enriched, (abundantly supplied.) " (2 Corinthians 8:9 Amplified Version)

I don't know how Paul good make it more clear. Paul is discussing provision (money). Jesus became poor so that we would become rich. He has given us financial prosperity if we will receive it by faith.

Here are a few of the highlights of our ministry week this week:

The highlight of the week was being able to minister to and bless our ministry partner in Turkey; Pastor Engin. We met and ministered to Pastor Engin on our second trip to Turkey. Engin teaches the Gospel of Jesus in a country that is 99.9% Muslim. He uses our teachings that he reads from our website and from teachings that we have personally given him. He and his wife fight the devil on a daily basis. We were blessed to be able to bless and minister to this mighty man of God. Thank you for sending us.

This week we had a very powerful Friday Fanatics Bible Study Group. We had a great turnout and we had some people who could not attend monitoring and participating with us by phone. The message was from the 7th chapter of Luke and it dealt with the fact that the centurion a gentile believed Jesus when his disciples did not. It also dealt with the fact that the centurion recognized the fact that Jesus' Words are soldiers that must obey Him and carry out to perfection, His commands.

Our Sunday meeting was just phenomenal. The congregation is strong and growing steadily. Our message this week was about the responsibility of those who wish to relate to God based on their performance, to keep perfectly, all of the 603 ordinances of the Hebrew law found in the first four books of the Bible, as well as, each of the ten commandments. We read about 20 of them before the congregation grew sad and weary. But then rejoiced that our relationship with God is not based on our performance, rather, acceptance of the complete work of Jesus.

We were sent to pray with and counsel a man who is standing in faith, nothing wavering, steadfastly believing the promises of Jesus; while all about him question his sanity. Praise God thank you Jesus for people who stand strong in the face of the enemy. Thank you for sending us.

We were sent to pray with and counsel a man who is using his living in this present moment, using his positive imagination, believing the promises of Jesus though his business is losing great sums of money. Thank you for sending us.

We were sent to minister to and pray with a retired Vietnam Veteran who lives day by day, receiving daily more than he needs. Thank you for sending us to minister to this great American.

We were sent to minister to a man who life is renewed daily. Everything in his business has changed dramatically, yet he stands in faith, engaging his positive imagination and sees the blessings of Jesus. Thank you for sending us to encourage this mighty man of God.

We were sent to minister to a man battling the worst kind of cancer. Thank you for sending us to bring the power and hope of the Gospel of Jesus.

We were sent to pray with and lay hands on a man with a very painful skin disorder. We spoke to the disorder and commanded it do dry up and disappear, and it did the next day. Thank you for sending us.

We were sent to pray and agree with a man suffering from a bronchial infection. We prayed and commanded the infection to dry up and disappear, and it obeyed us. Thank you for sending us.

We were sent to pray with a man who needed sales. We took authority over the situation and commanded the sales to be done. He wrote 6 contracts in one day. Thank you for sending us.
